

SABVC's Online Data Policy

At the Students' Association of Bow Valley College, we are all about making your online experience enjoyable while respecting your privacy.

Links to Other Websites

You might find some links on our website that lead to other places, mostly Bow Valley College's website. Just a heads up – we do not own those websites, so it's a good idea to check out their privacy policies before you click further.

Cookies

Cookies are like friendly helpers on our website. They make your visit smoother; think of them as tiny text files that remember your preferences. Your secrets are safe, though – only the web page you are on gets a peek.

Worried about privacy? No stress! Enabling or disabling cookies is easy. Click on Tools -> Internet Options, hit the Security tab, and then choose Custom Level. Cookie settings are right there waiting for you in the Security Settings dialog box.
